RMZ Nexity & CMVA Hosts Vintage & Classic Vehicle Showcase in Hyderabad

Hyderabad, 1st March 2026: RMZ Nexity, the Grade-A comemrcial development by RMZ, in partnership with the Classique Motor Vehicle Association (CMVA), hosted a Vintage & Classic Motor Vehicle Showcase at its campus, featuring nearly 50 heritage vehicles spanning 1920 to 1988.

The exhibition included 33 classic cars, and 14 vintage motorcycles. Key highlights were a vehicles were a rare 1920 Stutz, likely India's only road-registered example, a 1948 Bentley Mark VI, a 1971 Mercedes-Benz 600, a rare Triumph 2000, Austin A40 and a Morris Oxford. There were some of the Indian Heritage Cars like the Hindustan Ambassador (OHV – Mark 3), Fiat 1100D and a Standard Herald.

Over 250+ collectors, members, and guests attended the event. The event was attended by Mr. C Ramesh, Joint Transport Commissioner, Hyderabad, Mr. Y.S. Chowdhary, who showcased a Bentley Mark VI (1948) and Mercedes-Benz W123 (1985), Brigadier CP Sriram, Samanyu Chitte, Pawan Manepally, Pravinender Rao and S.A. Akheel among other senior CMVA members, guests and special invitees.

Mr. C Ramesh said the government is examining the Centre's vintage vehicle policy and is keen to explore similar measures in Telangana to encourage the preservation of classic vehicles.

Thirumal Govindraj, CEO, RMZ Office & RMZ NXT, said the showcase reflects RMZ Nexity's effort to integrate culture and community engagement within its commercial spaces while aligning with its sustainability commitments.

CMVA President B. Shashidhar said the association remains focused on preserving vintage automobiles and that the collaboration with RMZ helped bring Hyderabad's motoring heritage to a wider audience.

As part of its sustainability commitment, RMZ planted one sapling for every participating vehicle to help mitigate the event's environmental impact. Hetero was a venue partner at the event.

About CMVA

The Classique Motor Vehicle Association (CMVA), based in Hyderabad, is a dedicated community of vintage and classic motor vehicle enthusiasts.
Formed by passionate collectors and admirers, CMVA was created with the vision of preserving motoring heritage and keeping alive the timeless charm of automobiles from a bygone era. We believe that every classic car and motorcycle carries a story — of design, craftsmanship, engineering, and culture — that deserves to be celebrated and shared.
Our association brings together people from diverse walks of life who are united by a common love for historic vehicles. From carefully restored vintage beauties to rare classic treasures, CMVA members proudly maintain and display their vehicles at events, rallies, and public exhibitions.
Beyond showcasing cars and bikes, CMVA serves as a platform for friendship, knowledge-sharing, and community building. Whether it's restoring a rare model, sourcing authentic parts, or simply appreciating the elegance of a well-preserved automobile, our members support each other and inspire the next generation of enthusiasts.
